YOUR PRIVACY

By exhibiting at The Show you acknowledge that you have read and agree to the privacy policy of the RA&HS which can be <https://www.theshow.com.au/contact-us/>.

In relation to your entry into a competition we may specifically use and/or disclose your personal information to:

- Communicate competition information to you such as entry opening dates, delivery and collection details and entry ticket distribution
- Publish competition results both online and in printed results listings
- Publish competition entries in Competition Catalogues
- Advise sponsors of competition prize winners for distribution of prizes from both the RA&HS and sponsors

By entering into a competition, you consent to your contact details being provided to the sponsors of that competition for the purpose of distributing your prize. You also consent to your name, suburb and postcode being listed in a competition catalogue and, if you are a prize winner your name in competition results.

If you do not wish for your name and address to be printed in a competition catalogue, please ensure that you select the 'Keep Private' option in your online exhibitor profile.

GENERAL REGULATIONS

Exhibitors are reminded that the Society's General Regulations apply to all sections of the Show. A copy of the General Regulations can be obtained from the Society's website at www.theshow.com.au or from the Society's Administration Office.

Exhibitors should note that the General Regulations contain a number of provisions relevant to competitions and this Schedule including but not limited to, offences, penalties, prohibited drugs. As those conditions apply in addition to the regulations contained within this schedule, Exhibitors should familiarise themselves with the General Regulations.

SPECIAL REGULATIONS

Exhibitors are reminded that the Special Regulations contained within this Schedule are merely supplementary to and subject to the General Regulations.

The members of the Society's Diverse Farming Committee shall have the authority to act on behalf of the Society to take any necessary action under these Special Regulations.

SUBMISSION OF ENTRIES

Miniature Goat exhibitors must state on the entry form the animal's name, registration number, ear tag number, date of birth, sire, dam and name of breeder.

Angora and Boer Goat exhibitors must enter animals in appropriate age classes and special classes.

Proof of age, registration and ownership should be available at the time of inspection and judging.

A goat cannot compete in a special or group class unless it has competed in its age class.

OWNERSHIP

All animals must be the bona fide property of the exhibitor or held by the exhibitor under a written and recorded lease at the time of entry.

TRANSFERS

Please ensure exhibits are entered in the correct class at time of entry. No exhibit will be transferred to another class after the closing date of entries.

REGISTRATION

Copies of Herd Book registration forms, and/or relevant transfer certificates to be submitted with entry forms.

Boer Goats must be registered with Australian Breed Societies.

Miniature Goats must be registered with the Miniature Goats Australia Association Inc. A copy of Registration Certificate will be required at check in, and all goats must be owned by the exhibitor as indicated on the Registration Certificate unless a lessee's agreement is in place with MGA Registry.

IDENTIFICATION - BOER GOATS

MOST SUCCESSFUL EXHIBITOR AWARDS - INDIVIDUAL BREEDS

Points to be allotted as follows:

First, 5 points; second, 3 points; third, 1 point.

PAYMENT OF PRIZE MONEY

All prize money won during the Royal Adelaide Show is paid by Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT). The Exhibitor should provide the BSB, Account Number and Account Name at time of entry.

PRIZE MONEY WILL BE PAID BY THE END OF OCTOBER.

Any concerns regarding prize money must be raised with the Society by 30 November of the current year.

Any trophy, prize or prize money not claimed by 30 November of the current year. shall be deemed forfeited by the exhibitor and the RA&HS shall no longer be liable to pay or provide the prize.

PRIZE MONEY AND GST

Prize money as stated in the Prize Schedule does not include GST.

The prize money which we pay to successful exhibitors depends on information provided to us. If you confirm that you are GST registered and provide your Australian Business Number (ABN), we will pay the appropriate prize money plus 10% GST. We will provide you with a Recipient Created Tax Invoice which you will need to submit to the Australian Taxation Office.

If you confirm you are registered for GST, in entering the competition, you acknowledge your agreement to the following:

- You will not issue a tax invoice to the RA&HS in respect to prize money received;
- You will notify the RA&HS if you cease to be registered for GST.

If you provide your Australian Business Number but are not registered for GST, we will pay the prize money as detailed in the Prize Schedule without reference to the GST.

If you confirm you are entering as part of a private recreational pursuit or hobby, we will pay the prize money as detailed in the Prize Schedule without reference to GST.

IMPORTANT

It is important that you either:

- Confirm you are entering as part of a private recreational pursuit or hobby, or
- Confirm you are entering as a GST registered business and supply your ABN

Failure to do either of the above will require the RA&HS to withhold tax, at the maximum tax rate, from your prize money in accordance with Australian tax legislation.

The Society makes every endeavour to ensure all prizes listed are accurate at the time of publishing. Should a cash prize be withdrawn by a sponsor subsequent to publishing, the prize will revert back to the competitions default amount where applicable. Vouchers, product, or trophies withdrawn by a sponsor subsequent to publishing will not be replaced. It is the responsibility of the prize winner to follow-up with the Society any sponsored prize (cash, voucher, product, trophy) they believe they are entitled to prior to 30 November in the year of the prize being awarded. The Society will not follow-up prize sponsors after this date or review any prizes that may have been incorrectly awarded.

The RA&HS is not a tax consultant and therefore assumes no liability for actions taken as a result of these guidelines. In any instances where an entrant or sponsor is uncertain of the tax implications of their involvement, they should consult their own accountant or tax advisor.

DISPLAY CARDS

Each exhibitor is permitted to display one sign for every four pens entered occupied by exhibits, no larger than 1200 mm x 600mm. Logo, name, and address of exhibitor only to be shown. Strictly no other decoration, delineation, description, display or promotion is allowed. Ribbons and sashes on display must relate to the animals in that pen. All awards must be removed as soon as winning animals leave the Showground.

PEN CLEANING

Exhibitors shall, to the satisfaction of the Goat Superintendent:

1. Keep each pen allotted to them and their stock in a clean and proper condition throughout the Show.
2. Clean out their pens before 8.00 am each day.
3. Faecal waste must be placed directly into containers provided by the Society.

Failure to comply with these rules shall render the exhibitor liable to a fine no less than $15 (GST included) for each separate offence.

Exhibitors are requested to provide their own brooms and shovels to clean out pens.

PENS

Rugs and bags must not be fixed to sides or tops of pens during the time the Show is open to the public.

FIRE PRECAUTIONS

Precautions will be taken to guard against fire, and to protect the property at the Show, but exhibits will not be insured at the cost of the Society.

Smoking is strictly prohibited in all livestock pavilions and lockers.

No exhibitor or other person shall remove, or displace, or interfere in any way with, or use for any purpose other than the prevention of fire, any article or appliance provided for use in the case of an outbreak of fire upon the Showground, nor shall any exhibitor or other person remove or alter, or add to, or interfere in anyway with any fixture, fitting, article, appliance or thing owned by the Society, or used in such fixture, fitting, article, appliance or thing for any purpose other than for which it is intended by the Society to be used.

PENALTY FOR NON-EXHIBITION OF ANIMALS

Every animal entered must be exhibited and paraded before the judge in each class unless a certificate signed by the exhibitor or authorised agent, is lodged with the Society at least 14 days before the opening day of the Show, stating that the animal is unable to compete.

A fine of $100 (GST included) will be imposed for all late scratching's unless the scratching is notified by a statutory declaration setting out full reasons for scratching, together with an explanatory certificate signed by a Veterinary Surgeon. Notification must be received by 9.00 am on the day prior to judging.

Non-payment of these fines will debar exhibitors from parading their remaining goats before the judge.

Exhibits may not be removed from the judging ring until directed by the RA & HS Supervisor. Failure to comply with this regulation may result in exhibitors being banned from competing in any further classes during the current Show and/or fined.

The Society may also impose further penalties if deemed appropriate.

HEALTH REGULATIONS

All Goats attending the Royal Adelaide Show must be accompanied by a completed "National Goat Health Statement" obtained at <http://www.farmbiosecurity.com.au/toolkit/declarations-and-statements/> The Statement must be completed in full and submitted with entry form/s.

Miniature Goats

All Miniature Goats entered for competition must have been tested negative for CAE and Johnes Disease within 12 months of competition. Attach vet report and results to National Goat Health Statement when submitting your application. Entries under 12 months of age must come from a tested herd or Sire and Dam have tested negative within the previous 12 months and kids have not been exposed to any risk factors.

Angora Goats & Boer Goats

The minimum Royal Adelaide Show requirement is that goats be Assurance Score 5.

Goats will be exhibited at the Show in order of Goat Assurance Score ranking.

Exhibitors requiring a Johnes Disease Certificate of Compliance from the RA&HS can obtain a copy from the Secretary's Office.

SICK OR DISEASED ANIMALS

If, in the opinion of a qualified Veterinary Surgeon appointed by the Society, an animal on the Showground shall be so injured or be so affected by sickness, disease or other ailment as to warrant its destruction or its removal from the Showground as the case may be the Society shall be entitled to have the animal destroyed and/or require the animal to be forthwith removed from the Showground and the exhibitor, upon receipt of such notice, shall forthwith remove such animal and failing such removal by him within the time prescribed by the Society, by written notice to the exhibitor or his representative on the Showground, the Society may remove the animal or cause the animal to be removed and all costs and expenses of removal shall be borne by the exhibitor and shall be refunded to the Society. Each such animal shall at all times be the sole risk and responsibility of the exhibitor and the person or persons removing the animal shall at all times be deemed to be the agents of the exhibitor and all acts and omissions on the part of such person or persons shall be deemed to be the acts and omissions of the exhibitor who shall indemnify and hold indemnified the Society, its servants and agents from all claims whatsoever in respect of the animal whether by reason of any loss or injury to or caused by the animal or because of transportation, feeding or housing or otherwise, howsoever.

The pavilion supervisor must be advised immediately of any sick or diseased animals attended to by the Society's Veterinary Surgeon.

NLIS REQUIREMENTS - ALL EXHIBITORS

All goats must be NLIS compliant. This means all animals must be tagged with an approved NLIS ear tag (including kids at foot) and accompanied by a completed National Vendor Declaration (NVD) or approved alternative movement document available at www.pir.sa.gov.au.

The Society will notify the NLIS database of all movements onto the Showground on behalf of exhibitors.

BEDDING

Straw will be the bedding in the Alpaca & Goat Pavilion at this year's Royal Adelaide Show.

PARADES

Angora and Boer Goats may be paraded at the discretion of the exhibitor.

WHITE ATTIRE

Exhibitors and/or attendants shall wear white dust coats or attire acceptable to their Breed Societies when leading goats in the judging ring and in parades.

Schools must wear their school uniform in the judging ring.

No exhibitor, or his attendant shall parade stock before the judge whilst wearing attire bearing his name or the name of the stud for which he works.

CONFORMATION OF GOATS

An inspection will be made of all Angora and Boer Goats for breed type, conformation, and vermin at time of arrival.

An inspection will be made of all Miniature Goats on Saturday 10 September. All animals will be measured - any animal not measured will be ineligible to compete. Heights for age classes are listed in the MGA Show Rules.

This will take place in the Pavilion and an attendant must be present to supply any information required by the inspectors.

Any animal rejected because of this inspection must be removed from the Showground, the time of removal to be at the discretion of the Committee.

FODDER

Exhibitors must arrange their own fodder requirements. The sale of all fodder is managed by Keelan Grain & Fodder, located at the southern end of the Horse Area in the Tin Dairy. Orders can be made by contacting Keelan Grain & Fodder on 08 8362 4178 or email sales@keelanguainandfodder.com.au. All sales will be by credit card only.

Any exhibitor who, in the opinion of the Committee, has more fodder than is considered necessary, will be required to remove the excess from the Showground.

Exhibitors must not solicit orders for fodder on the Showground.

DUTY OF CARE

It is important to ensure your own safety and that of all other site personnel, visitors and general public at the Adelaide Showground.

All competitors have a "Duty of Care" to avoid exposing themselves or other people to situation which could lead to injury. This "Duty of Care" extends to the prevention of damage to property.

Royal Agricultural & Horticultural Society of SA Competitive Exhibitor – Royal Adelaide Show Conditions of Entry

COVID-19

As SA Health COVID protocols change according to the perceived risk of new variants, the South Australian vaccination status requirements for running the 2022 event may need to be altered to comply. The Royal Adelaide Show COVID-19 policy including vaccination requirements, will be established closer to the event and distributed to all exhibitors.

HAZARD REPORTING

Competitors must notify the Area/Pavilion Supervisor or the Venue Control Centre immediately of any hazards detected. Hazards are any situation which has the potential to cause:

1. Injury, illness or death to people or animals either immediately or in the future
2. Damage or destruction to property

INCIDENT REPORTING

Competitors must notify the Area/Pavilion Supervisor or the Venue Control Centre immediately an incident occurs which has resulted in:

1. The injury, illness or death of any person or animal
2. The damage, destruction or loss of property
3. A near miss incident that could have resulted in the consequences listed in 1 and 2

WASTE DISPOSAL

All waste including liquids must be disposed of responsibly and placed in the appropriate bin or receptacle. Storm drains must not be used for the disposal of any waste.

HAZARD MINIMISATION

All areas must be kept in a clean and tidy order with clearly defined and available access and exit routes at all times. Build-up of combustible waste must be avoided.

Care must be taken to minimise trip hazards and obstacles that people may walk into.

HAZARDOUS MATERIALS

The RA&HS are to be advised of all hazardous materials that are brought onto the Showground. Appropriate warning signs and Safety Data Sheets (SDS) will need to be provided before allowing these materials on site. SDS are to be available onsite and provided immediately upon request by an RA&HS Representative.

MEDIA COMMENTS

Any public comment on emergencies, incidents or other venue matters should only come from the RA&HS. The key media spokesperson for the RA&HS is the Marketing Manager.

DUTY OF CARE

It is important to ensure your own safety and that of all other site personnel, visitors and general public at the Adelaide Showground.

All competitors have a "Duty of Care" to avoid exposing themselves or other people to situations which could lead to injury. This "Duty of Care" extends to the prevention of damage to property.

Royal Agricultural & Horticultural Society of SA Competitive Exhibitor – Royal Adelaide Show Conditions of Entry

LIABILITY AND INDEMNITY

1. Release

Entry to and remaining on the Showground is entirely at the risk of the Exhibitor and to the maximum extent permitted by law, the Exhibitor releases the Society (which term includes in this clause the Society's officers, employees, members and agents), from all claims and demands of every kind resulting from any accident, damage or injury occurring at the Showground, and without limitation, the Exhibitor acknowledges:

- a) the Society has no responsibility or liability for any loss, damage or injury to or caused by any Exhibit;
- b) the Society has no responsibility or liability for any loss, damage or injury to or caused by any Exhibitor, his or her family, invitees and Agents;
- c) the Society has no responsibility or liability for any loss, damage or injury to a Motor Vehicle or any of its contents whilst it is located on the Showground; and
- d) without limiting Regulations 1 (a) and 1 (b) above, the Society has no responsibility or liability for any loss, damage or injury resulting from the sale, treatment, failure to treat, destruction, disposal or other dealing with any Exhibit, or for loss, damage or injury to any personal belongings, equipment or property brought onto the Showground.

2. Indemnity

To the maximum extent permitted by law, the Exhibitor must indemnify and keep indemnified the Society and its officers, employees, members and agents from and against all actions, claims, demands, losses, damages, costs, expenses and liabilities including without limitation, consequential loss and loss of profits for which the Society is or may be or become liable in respect of or arising from:

- a) loss, damage or injury to any person in connection with the Exhibit or the relevant Event;
- b) without limiting Regulation 2(a), loss, damage or injury to any other Exhibit or Exhibitor, his or her family, invitees, Agents, or to the property of the Society, or its members, or to the general public, caused or contributed to or by any act or omission of an Exhibit of the Exhibitor or by the Exhibitor, his or her family, invitees or Agents; and
- c) without limiting Regulation 2(a), loss, damage or injury to the Exhibit, or the Exhibitor, his or her family, invitees, or Agents caused or contributed by an act or omission of an Exhibit of the Exhibitor or by the transportation, feeding or housing of an Exhibit of the Exhibitor.

3. Removal from Showground

Without prejudice to any other provision in these Regulations, where the Society, its officers, employees, members or agents removes an Exhibit, or causes an Exhibit to be removed from the Showground, the Exhibit is removed or caused to be removed entirely at the risk of the Exhibitor. The person or persons removing the Exhibit will be deemed to be the agent of the Exhibitor, and his or her acts and omissions will be deemed to be the acts and omissions of the Exhibitor.

4. Insurance

The Society will arrange Animal Exhibitors Public Liability insurance cover for all Exhibitors of Exhibits being animals. The Exhibitor is bound by the terms and conditions of this insurance and by Statutory Duties as defined under the Insurance Contracts Act (1984). Details of the Animal Exhibitors Public Liability insurance are set out in the Relevant Schedule. The Society does not insure first party loss, damage or injury to Exhibits, and Exhibitors should consider purchasing insurance if required.

5. Personal effects

The Society has no responsibility or liability for any loss or damage caused to personal belongings, equipment or property which is brought onto the Showground by an Exhibitor, his or her family, invitees or Agents.

Royal Agricultural & Horticultural Society of SA Competitive Exhibitor – Royal Adelaide Show Conditions of Entry

EMERGENCY INFORMATION

Emergency information and Emergency Assembly Points for the various animal pavilions and stables will be included with Exhibitor List of Entries and Notice to Exhibitor notifications. Competitors should be familiar with these plans.

FIRST AID

During the Royal Adelaide Show, St John provides First Aid Services but it is suggested that competitors have a basic First Aid kit for minor medical requirements.

St John is not in attendance after public hours.

For emergency contact details, check Notice Boards for onsite assistance or dial 000 for a medical emergency.

RA&HS EMERGENCY FACILITIES

Firefighting and other emergency equipment must not be removed or used for any other purpose. Missing or unserviceable equipment should be reported to the Venue Control Centre immediately.

SMOKING

The Royal Adelaide Show is a smoke free event. Smoking is only permitted in designated locations.

TRAFFIC CONTROL

The RA&HS Traffic Management Policy imposes restrictions within the Showground. Maximum speed for all vehicles on the Showground is 10 km/h or as indicated by staff, permits or signs.

Permitted vehicles to only be driven on the Showground during public hours in exceptional circumstances as detailed on approved vehicle permit.

Conditions of entry will be provided with the issue of Vehicle Entry Permits.

ELECTRICAL EQUIPMENT

1. All electrical cords and electrical appliances should be tested and tagged as per Australian Standards 3760-2010.
2. Removal of all untagged electrical equipment will be required or costs levied to exhibitors regarding any equipment without a current inspection tag.
3. Power boards with overload protection and appropriate tagging can be used.
4. The use of double adaptors is strictly prohibited.
5. Appliances and power cables must not be used or laid through any area that may become wet.
6. Power cables must not be laid across walkways, paths, roads or any area where damage could occur to the cable.
7. Bar (resistance) heaters are strictly prohibited.
8. Light sockets must not be used for any other purpose
9. In external areas only, extension leads that are Heavy Duty Rated may be used.

Animal Exhibitors Public Liability Insurance (Explanation)

WHEREAS The Royal and Horticultural Society of South Australia Inc. has agreed to effect a Public Liability insurance for certain Animal Exhibitors at the 2022 Adelaide Show, the following applies:-

Insured Party	Animal and Livestock Exhibitors participating in competitions and events
Period of Insurance	From seven days prior to the Show until seven days thereafter
Insured Activities	All activities undertaken whilst within and from the confines of the event venue consistent with the Insured's livestock exhibit activity including setting up and removal
Description of Cover	Insurance in respect of the Insured Party's liability to pay costs and compensation in respect of loss of or damage to third party property and death of or injury to third party persons caused by and arising out of the Insured activities, all subject to the RAHSSA's policy terms, conditions, exclusions and warranties, etc.
Amount of Cover	$10,000,000 any one occurrence
Deductible	$10,000 any one occurrence
Geographic Limits	At and from the event venue
Claims Payable	Worldwide excluding claims made USA and Canada
Insurer(s)	Primary – $10,000,000 Lloyds of London
Important Conditions	The Insured Party must exercise reasonable care to maintain all premises, fittings and plant in sound condition. The Insured Party must take all reasonable precautions to prevent injury and damage to persons and property. The Insured Party must give immediate notice of an incident which may give rise to a claim or of receipt of advice of a claim. The Insured Party must not make any admission, offer or promise in connection with any claim and must not any time admit liability.

The Insured Party must made themselves aware of and comply with the following Notices:-

Duty of Disclosure Before you enter into a contract of General insurance with an insurer, you have a duty, under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 as amended, to disclose to the insurer every matter that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to the insurer's decision whether to accept the risk of the insurance and, if so, on what terms.

You have the same duty to disclose these matters to the insurer before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate a contract of General insurance.

Your duty however, does not require disclosure of matter:-

that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by the insurer

that is of common knowledge that your insurer knows or, in the ordinary course of his business, ought to know.

Non-Disclosure If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, the insurer may be entitled to reduce his liability under the contract in respect of a claim or may cancel the contract.

If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, the insurer may also have the option of avoiding the contract from its beginning.

Average Provision The insurer will pay legal expenses in addition to the sum insured, if however, the total amount of the loss (less legal expenses) ultimately paid to the claimant(s) exceeds the sum insured then insurers will only pay (in addition to the sum insured) that proportion of the legal expenses as the sum insured bears to the loss.

Third Party Interests This policy will only provide cover for your interest and does not cover the interests of any third party (e.g. financiers, lessors, etc) unless the interests of the third party are noted in the policy.

Waiver of Insurer's Rights You must not enter into any agreement without the written authority of the insurer whereby any of their rights to which they become entitled as your insurer after settling or agreeing to settle a claim are prejudiced or limited in any way otherwise all benefit under the policy will be forfeited.

- NOTE
1. All enquiries to be referred to Arthur J Gallagher Insurance Brokers
Tel. no. (02) 9424 1888
 2. CLAIMS
 - (a) No admission of liability or fault may be made in any form to a claimant. To do so may breach the policy conditions and enable insurers to avoid settlement.
 - (b) Any notice of a potential or actual claim must be referred immediately to Arthur J Gallagher Insurance Brokers
 3. Nothing herein shall be construed to alter in any way the scope of insurance policy, its terms, conditions or exclusions, issued by insurers.
 4. RAHSSA is not liable to the Insured Party in the event a claim is not paid or payable by Insurers unless RAHSSA fails to take reasonable steps to advise that the cover is or is likely to be cancelled or not renewed.
 5. RAHSSA is not an Australian Financial Services (AFS) Licence holder. RAHSSA is not providing financial product advice, has not considered the particular needs of the Insured party and no statement is intended to influence a person or persons making a decision in relation to any insurance cover. You should consider obtaining your own financial product advice from person holding an AFS Licence.
 6. This insurance only applies to insured parties entering competition in accordance with the general regulations.

The details listed above are not comprehensive and are provided as an outline of the policy only. Extracts from the policy are available for inspection on request at RAHSSA's Registered Offices during office hours.
